LANGUAGING LOVEVOLUTION WITH QUANTUM LOVE POET DREAMINGBEAR BARAKA KANAAN

by Missy Galore

"Life begins where water and light kiss"

The 2009 International Alchemy Conference referred to their featured speaker and main MC as "the Shakespeare of Quantum Physics". To me, experiencing DreamingBear Baraka Kanaan feels like drinking a shamanic trinity blend of Rumi, Jim Morrison, and Carl Sagan.

"Alchemy is about transformation and positive change, and the Alchemy Conference is about exploring ways to better our lives by opening our minds to the world beyond science" states Conference organizers. "The goal of our work is to empower individuals with the highest level of spiritual growth coupled with practical knowledge on how to change our personal reality and thereby transform the world... Through his playful and potent loves spells, DreamingBear boldly seeks to awaken that sleeping giant of greatness within us and ignite a LOVEVOLUTION with the intention that our generation can rise into it's fullest potential."

Combining ancient wisdom with cutting edge science in a love story of all that is, Quantum Love Poets catalyze transformation with lyrically stimulation whose phraseology instigation is an alchemical incantation to manifest reality. Weaving wonder with "edu-tainment" by invoking facts as acts of joy, DreamingBear Baraka Kanaan is Languaging Lovevolution so that we will find our minds nourished kind and freely and growing in a healthy paradigm.

DreamingBear declares: "NOW is our time to Rise! Right now, your life can be the most beautiful possible version of itself... if you're ready to let go of every moment until THIS ONE, and Celebrate (which means to put into action) your unparalleled beauty and ability to recreate existence at will!"

"[We] came for experience, the good and the bad. Laughter and tears are the same thing, there is not even a hair's breath between them, both born of ecstasy." "Every time you cry, every time you shed a tear, that is the payment you give back to existence for all that you have been given. We pay with water."

Inviting people on "an unprecedented archeological dig of the future... to excavate philanthropy and dust our kindness off" because "every heart knows: Kindness is the oldest science that has ever existed"

His timeless insights resonate harmonically with the love core in us all, revealing one's inner knowing while encouraging one's outward glowing. DreamingBear calls his performances playshops, people giggle as they grow. He manifests "spontaneous community combustion" with call and response exuberantly engaged as vibration initiation into Lovevolution sensations. It is well documented that after 12 mins of focused attention, whatever synapses are firing fortify in power, DreamingBear uses this knowledge for "cellular re-encodement" to "clear karmic cobwebs" by articulating epic journeys of activation transformation, we literally improve our capacity to love with each encounter.

DreamingBear says: "It is this heart's intention to make "god" say WOW, give the universe goosebumps, & inspire all of existence by living a life of profound beauty and creativity. And, I dare you to do it too! If we can dream it, we can be it."

We "Bridge Heaven and Earth in the Human Heart and Soul through Music, Love, Spirit and Passionate Purpose...To Lift Our Individual and Collective Vibrations and Experience Higher!" says creative collaborator, Valarien Eric Reyes, whose mystical music, live guitar and scenic sound~scapes, accompany DreamingBear on the Lovevolution tour (whose video montage is linked to this article), as well as the upcoming "Languaging the new Paradigm" album (2010 produced by Jah Levi @the Center for Quantum Healing)

Founder of the Lovevolution Foundation and author of 8 books including Wild Love~ Kissed into Consciousness, DreamingBear's call to action: "We have to Love by example" How you ask? "Get online with the inner-net and download your soul the new operating system of unconditional love." "I quadruple dog-dare you to have the courage to open mouth kiss your destiny in public!"

His creativity is contagious, his wisdom sagacious, bless this bringer of Lovevolution!
