Modern Shamanism Playshops CEREMONY, RITUAL, & ELEMENTAL INVOCATION

DreamingBear is an award-winning author of eight books, & stand-up philosopher whose transformational insights have inspired audiences at venues around the globe including Return of the Ancestors Gathering of N. American tribal elders, The Alchemy Conference, & numerous music and arts festivals including Harmony, New Living Expo, colleges & universities, spiritual centers of all faiths.

DreamingBear's Modern Shamanism Playshop focuses on scientifically based eco-advocacy & re-emersion in the natural world, complete with indigenous teachings on vision quests, personal medicine journeys, & learning to speak the language of nature. Neo-shamanism will be the prelude to transformative conscious re-patterning. Discover your hidden power through communion with the trees, transcendental meditation, yoga, sound healing, inter-species communication experiences with our extended earth family.

- Receive the shamanic initiation of a lifetime. Through the empowered use of essential flower essences, sound healing therapy, shamanic drumming, native flute music, and the creation of power items for the clearing of "karmic cobwebs.
- Acquire a working understanding of how to craft your own shamanic tools & ways to infuse the inanimate with Mana (personal power) in modern day settings.
- Learn the proper use of entheogens & their role in ceremonial advancement of the shamanic initiate, then participate in a native re-naming ceremony, soul retrieval ritual, & lifestyle practices of successful practicing shamans.
- Be inspired to re-connect to your amakua (animal spirit guides) through shamanic chants, artistic expression, tribal dance & movement, through the synthesis of science & ancestral wisdoms.

Examples of playshop activities include group shamanic drumming, lucid dream exercises, artifact creation, re-naming ceremony, spirit guide invocation, tribal dance/vocalization & singing, tools for shamanic activation.
